BACKACHE IS DISCOURAGING

But Not So Bad If You Know How to Reach the Cause.

Nothing more discouraging than a constant backache. Lame when you awaken, pains pierce you when you bend or lift. It's hard to work or to rest. Backache often indicates bad kidneys. Norway people recommend Doan's Pills. Read this case.

Mrs. G. D. Frost, 6 Tucker St., says: "Doan's Pills helped me wonderfully and I take pleasure in recommending them. My back gave me trouble and there seemed to be a deep seated pain across the center of my back. My kidneys didn't act regularly and in other ways showed signs of disorder. As Doan's Pills had been used in the family with good results, I decided to try them and sent to Noyes Drug Store and got a box. After using them, the trouble left me entirely."

Academy Notes

Principal Sampson was a business visitor in Portland, Wednesday.

Football, track and tennis practice engage the attention of the young men all of their spare time. Wednesday, Oct. 22, the track team met the team of Hebron Academy in a three mile cross country run.

The Athletic teams now have a truck of their own, a great convenience in journeying to distant points for games.

It was used, Saturday, for the first time, when the football team traveled to South Portland, where they were defeated to the tune of 25-0 by South Portland High School eleven.

Herbert Chase, B. A. '86, visited his daughter, Mrs. Raymond Kendall, our music teacher, for the week end. Mr. Chase could be retired with a pension but the lure of the school is still so strong that he prefers to continue the work and he is now Superintendent in Livermore Falls.

Mrs. Caroline Merriman, matron in Cleaves Hall, was a Portland visitor, recently.

Mrs. Thos. Kimball (nee Lizzie Merritt) of South Bridgton, who was a student hero in 1883, was a caller, looking over our Cleaves Hall home for girls and comparing it with the dormitory in which she stayed.

Mrs. H. H. Sampson, Kenneth C. Sampson and Mrs. Caroline Merriman motored to Portland shopping and theatre going on Wednesday.

J. Oscar Normand of Auburn, Harry Strout of Poland went to their homes for the week end after playing with the B. A. football squad at South Portland.

Mrs. C. C. Spratt called on the Frank Petersons in Fryeburg, recently.

Congregational Association Meeting
The semi-annual meeting of the Congregational Association met with the local church on Saturday. Rev. Shaver, Secretary of Church Education for New England, brought an interesting, inspiring and instructive message.

Other prominent speakers were Rev. J. C. Gregory, Rev. W. A. Richmond, Rev. R. A. McDonald and Rev. A. C. Townsend, who gave the sermon. There was a good attendance of delegates and church workers from Waterford, North Waterford, Bridgton, Denmark, Brownfield and Fryeburg. The Ladies' Circle served a delicious dinner and supper—something for which they are famous—Mrs. Charles Hill and Mrs. Addie Chaulbourne being in charge.

Prin. Sampson and family, Mrs. Caroline Merriman, Miss Mabelle Hunt and Miss Margaret Skilling called on Prin. and Mrs. Hunt at Hebron Academy the first of the week.

Mrs. Annie P. Kimball, Fryeburg spent the week end with Mrs. George Marr.

Mrs. Melville R. Wilbur is still very ill and under the care of a trained nurse.

The Village Library has received the gift of many fine books from Mrs. Robert Warner, a summer visitor.

Mrs. Shalev of Norway, who is stopping at M. R. Wilbur's, had the misfortune to break her wrist by falling down stairs.

Mrs. Daniel Curtis is home from a Portland Hospital, after a serious operation, much improved.

Mrs. Josephine Griffin Cook is one of our smart ladies, being often seen on our street as straight as an arrow as a many year younger person although she has known eighty-five birthdays.

Philip Weston Wilbur played with the B. A. football squad at South Portland, Saturday, and staved over in Woodfords with his cousins, the Howard Hagers, who brought him home, Sunday.

Miss Eudora Gould, primary teacher in Bridgton, passes the week ends at her home here.

Mrs. Virginia Weston Hagar was in Fryeburg for the week end visiting Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Wilde and calling on friends.

PORTER
Mrs. Orrison Libby and son, Herbert, visited at Thomas Libby's, Sunday.

Jesse Libby put on some roofing, Saturday, for Mr. Chapman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weeks and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fox motored around the White Mountains, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fox visited relatives at Kezar Falls, Sunday.

Ernest Durgin is helping Milton Varney plow this week.

Curtis Stanley of South Hiram held another prayer meeting at the home of Milton Varney, Tuesday evening, Oct. 14.

Digging potatoes and picking apples seem to be the order of the day in this vicinity.

Ernest Roberts raised 103 bushels of potatoes from 4 bushels of seed. Has any one had any better potato crop than this?

The Raleigh Retailer was through this place, Monday.

Claude Bickford, who has been working on Green Mountain, is spending his vacation with his mother, Mrs. Seth Day.

Frank Roberts is working for Maurice Thompson.

NORWAY PAPER WELCOMED
H. J. Hamlin of Spokane, Washington, recently renewed his subscription to the Advertiser for another year. He made the following comment:

"While I have been away from Oxford County for nearly forty years, I find many items of news about the old times and their families that is very interesting to have. You have a very newsy paper and covers the County thoroughly. We, of the West, like to hear the Maine news even the election news. Now that the whole country is dry they can't say that Maine is the only State where rum is barred, and I should judge you have rum runners in that State as well as every other State."

GOOD COMPANY
If you have a little fairy in your home, or a big one for that matter, that's just the place where a subscription to The Youth's Companion will fit in. When the young folks bring new acquaintances to the house you are mighty careful to find out about them before admitting them to intimacy. In the same way you should make sure whether the mental friends that they make through reading are of a kind to inspire them or to destroy all the ideals you have been at so much pains to implant. Try The Youth's Companion for a year. See how quickly it becomes an indispensable member of the household, one of unfailing charm and constant inspiration.

The 52 issues of 1925 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications only $3.00.

IN OCTOBER
Our thoughts are likely to turn to Theodore Roosevelt—for his birthday is the 27th. What a man he was—staunch, energetic, courageous; full of rugged force and vigor! His life and achievements will be an inspiration to Americans as long as this nation endures.

One of the principles which Mr. Roosevelt practiced and preached was personal economy. He recognized the power of columns of deposits in the savings pass-book.

DEATH OF GRANVILLE P. WILSON

Granville Payson Wilson, one of Old Orchard's oldest residents, died Monday evening, Oct. 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Doughty, Pilgrim House, on Union avenue, following several years of ill health. His age was 88 years, 7 months and 27 days.

Mr. Wilson was born at "Wilson's Mills," Lincoln Plantation in Oxford County, on Feb. 9, 1836. He was descended from Revolutionary War stock, his grandfather having fought in that struggle for American liberty. He was one of ten children, six sons and four daughters, of Captain John M. and Annie (Sweet) Wilson, who were natives of Deering. One brother, Edwin H. Wilson, of Southbridge, Mass., is the only survivor of the immediate family. Another relative is a nephew, March G. Bennett of Boston.

Having attended the small country schools, and receiving most of his education at home and by self application, as limited opportunities for learning were presented, he early manifested an aptitude for literature, and at the age of eighteen years had written several poems that were published at Gorham, N. H. Burial services will be held at Wilson's Mills, Maine.

His father was a competent engineer, and Granville accompanied him, making several important surveys of extensive woodland territories in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. Much of his life was passed in the woods surveying, until he first went to Old Orchard, in 1882. For three years he remained there, and was employed as a carpenter until 1885, when he went to Boston and vicinity remaining there for about twenty years. During the past fifteen years, Mr. Wilson made his home at several places in Old Orchard and his last home was with the Doughty family at the Pilgrim House.

He had continued his literary work throughout the long span of years since he was a boy. He published at Old Orchard, June 1918, and attractive and historically interesting volume, "Pioneers of the Magalloway," covering the period, 1820-1904. He also wrote nearly fifty poems and various sketches.

PREACHERS' AND LAYMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Northern District Preacher's and Laymen's Institute will be in session at the Fryeburg Harbor Methodist Episcopal Church on Monday, October 27, with a complete program beginning at 10 a. m., and continuing throughout the day and evening. Important matters of denominational interest and general church activity will be discussed. There will also be an Institute Sermon preached by one of the visiting preachers and special music will be rendered by local talent.

Among the Churches included and from which it is hoped pastors and large delegations will be present, are Bridgton, Conway, Center Conway, Cornish, Fryeburg, Hiram, Intervale, Kezar Falls, Naples, North Conway, West Baldwin and Sweden. This meeting is open to the public, and pastors and laymen of other denominations in Fryeburg and nearby towns will be welcome.

Moore's Won't Leak

Price $2.50 and up

The principle which makes this pen non-leakable is the method of sealing the reservoir by a hard rubber cone. By the employment of a screw-thread at the mouth of the barrel which engages another thread in the cap the pen is made bottle-tight. It can be carried in any pocket, hand-bag or traveling case without danger of leaking. When you put the stopper in a bottle and a cap to hold it in place, you know it cannot leak. This result expected by theory is proven in practice. The Moore Non-Leakable Pen cannot leak for it is

BETHEL

Bethel Grange

On October 15, Bethel Grange held an all day meeting to commemorate its fiftieth birthday.

There were patrons present from Auburn (Androscoggin County), Errol, N. H., Paris, Norway, Waterville, Round Mountain, Mountain View, Pleasant Valley, Bear River, Franklin and Alder River Granges and a long quota of the members of the host Grange. Of the State officers they were fortunate in securing E. H. Libby, Secretary of the Maine State Grange, and A. E. Morse, Chaplain of the Maine State Grange, to be present on this occasion, and we will say that the members of Bethel Grange spared no pains to make all welcome and comfortable.

The forenoon session was presided over by Worthy Master, F. E. Russell, with nearly all officers present. All were glad to have the Chaplain, Sister Mary Goodwin, who has been ill so long, with them again. An especially noted feature was the presence of Sister Loretta Valentine, the only remaining charter member, present. She has been, for a long time, only able to attend infrequently.

All work was disposed of at this session and then a recess was taken for the partaking of a regular Grange Feast, after a Divine blessing by Brother Morse. Many old friends met and congratulated each other on being able to be present at this anniversary. When all assembled on the platform at the side of the hall and the local photographer, Mr. Goddard took their pictures, of course all looked pleasant. The program for the afternoon was enjoyable and extremely interesting.

A cordial welcome was extended by Worthy Master Russell, who gave many interesting incidents in connection with Grange life. Brother J. A. Kimball of Round Mountain Grange, Albany, responded and fully expressed the sentiments of all visitors when he congratulated Bethel Grange on its fiftieth birthday and the pleasure it gave to be privileged to be present. Song "The Grange Is Marching On," by all. Sister Loretta Valentine then gave a brief history of the organizing of Bethel Grange.

On November 13, 1874, the late Grangeville Kimball being the first Master. Patee's Hall on Spring Street was the wards purchased and within the last few years extensive repairs and changes have been made in addition to former work and now it stands as a model hall. Sister Valentine's talk was appreciated heartily and really the record gave an incentive to seek greater advancement in the work of the order.

Song, "Hush for Old New England," was sung by the chorus and all members. State Secretary E. H. Libby then gave an address which was listened to with close attention. It was full of encouragement, counsel and a few of Brother Libby's "make you smile" stories. Vocal selections Sister Etta Brink, Bear River Grange, with encore.

Brother A. E. Morse, Chaplain of the Maine State Grange, gave a delightful selection and responded to several inquiries into which he worked some local hits. Song, "State of Maine, My State of Maine," by all and a reading, "The Home Town Paper," by Sister A. E. K. Grover. Those responding were Messrs. Wight Bennett of Bear River, Bennett of Errol N. H., a charter member of that Grange, Guy Bartlett, Alder River, Ellis Davis, Franklin, Adrian Grover, Pleasant Valley, Arley Heath, Mountain View, Round Mountain, Song, "Back to Maine," chorus and audience. Then came a delightful feature which made every member feel deeply impressed by its significance. As a token of deep respect and fraternal love, Sister Ruth Carter Poole in behalf of Bethel Grange presented Sister Loretta Valentine, the only remaining charter member, which among other articles nestled a gold piece as a fitting acknowledgment of her being with them and a souvenir of the fiftieth birthday of Bethel Grange. Sister Valentine was totally unaware of what the introductory remarks of the Lecturer meant but responded with heartfelt thanks to the donors of the loving gift. The closing song was "America."

A word as to the remarks by Sister Valentine; one item was a sugar party at the late Ira Cushman's in the days when the members met at each others' houses. Bonquets adorned the hall and the tables in the dining hall were laden with a bounteous supply and decorated with lovely flowers and ferns. We hope to have just such an enjoyable occasion in 1974.

Oxford County Pomona Grange holds its next meeting with Bethel Grange, Tuesday, November 4. Hurry up and vote and all be there.

The Universalist Society will continue services for a while at least. Mrs. McVail will be with Mrs. Edith Grover for a while. She is a partial invalid and has reached the advanced age of ninety-two years. Her sister, Mrs. Angeline Clark, will take a much needed rest.

ALBANY

Hunt's Corner and Vicinity
The Circle which was held at the vestry, Oct. 19, was well attended. One of the pleasant features of the Circle this summer has been the renewing of old friendships.

Nearly every Circle has brought us some unexpected friend. At this Circle, Mrs. Flora Newcomb and family were present. Mrs. Newcomb was president of the Circle when she lived in town. She was an efficient worker and the Circle prospered under her leadership. We feel grateful to know that she and so many of the old friends still have our success at heart and rejoice that we have had so many pleasant gatherings this summer.

Mrs. A. A. Bruce, who has been ill for some time with sciatic rheumatism, is gaining as fast as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. David Burnham and Mrs. Wild of Andover, Mass., were recent visitors of Mrs. Angie Bean. Mrs. Bean returned with them, stopping with her son, Amos Bean, of Haverhill, Mass., for a few days. From there she will go to Essex, Mass., where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. Jennie Trickey and grandson, Kenneth, of Jackson, N. H., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mattland Bird.

A. R. Clark of Bolster's Mills and Abel Andrews went to Upton, Wednesday, returning home, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, who have been spending a few days with their cousin, Omer Jones, of Jackson, N. H., returned home, Saturday.

Ruth and Beatrice Andrews were week end guests at their grandfather's, Abel Andrews's.

We hope to soon be enjoying our new library as L. J. Andrews and Calvert Fullerton put some shelves in the vestry, Friday, also set up a stove which has been purchased for the vestry kitchen, recently.

Another helpful sermon was preached at Hunt's Corner, Oct. 19, by Mrs. Ives, who has charge of the work there now. Mrs. Ives spoke of the difficult situation that faced some people who loved God and the church, when in the same family was some one who did not. She urged those who did to cleave to God and live such lives that the others would be drawn to Christ through their example.

She also urged all to study God's Word and make as much effort to learn about spiritual things, as we do about crops and how to make money. If we do, we will reap great Help and Comfort. The Paint That Will Make Any Floor Beautiful

SOME floors are beautiful in themselves, but all floors, old or new, can be made beautiful with a glossy coat of paint that hides the old, worn surface, or new unattractive surface perfectly.

Devco Floor paint is easy to apply, is spot-resting, dries rapidly and is hard enough to protect the floor against a great deal of vigorous wear. Its cost is not brittle and does not crack, check or peel, but wears down gradually and evenly to the end.

Charles Brakas, Rumford, driving intoxicated. Henry Paris, Rumford, statutory charge. Ed. Larkin, Peru, cruelly assaulting. Carlo Walo, Pittsfield, Cumberland, illegal transportation. Chief Wingo, Dixfield, transporting females for immoral purposes. Henry Smith, Mexico, passing worthless checks. Claude Morton, Rumford, illegal possession. Onnes Mailhot, New Bedford, Mass., illegal transportation. William Hawkes, Rumford, passing worthless checks. Tony Mortis, Mexico, manufacturing intoxicating liquor. Marguerite Marriano, Rumford, manufacturing intoxicating liquor. Harold Davis, Lewiston, driving intoxicated. Charles Cornum, Rumford, illegal possession. John Kalastrakis, Rumford, driving intoxicated. Henry DeForge, Rumford, driving intoxicated. Anton Neimi, Norway, driving intoxicated. Peter Laugustin, Caribee, driving intoxicated. Anne Clarke and Joseph Barrett, Woodstock, liquor nuisance. Richard Smith, Peru, passing worthless checks. Joseph Marquis, Rumford, illegal transportation.

Late Monday afternoon a group of thirteen boys from Rumford, ages ranging from nine to sixteen years, were interviewed by the court in relation to gang breaks in stores and warehouses at Rumford where shoes, soft drinks and smokes were carried away. Each boy was quizzed about his schooling, home conditions and future plans of life and conduct. According to statements made by the boys, the gang was rounded up when one of their number "squealed to the cop."

Some of the boys admitted their parents had administered due punishment after being informed of the facts. After the liberation Justice Barnes received the promise from each respondent he would return to court with the Chief of Police of Rumford, on Friday, and they were allowed to depart.

Chief Wingo, who has held hope of freedom since he was apprehended on charges of immoral conduct with Nina Dow and Rosie Richards last May, resigned himself to the law by appearing in the dock, retracting his pleas of not guilty to charges of rape, attempt to break jail and conspiracy. Wingo will be sentenced at the end of the term.

Llewellyn B. K. of Rumford who had planned to fight five indictments gave way to the law and after retracting pleas of not guilty, pleaded guilty to five charges; rape, selling mortgaged property, forging checks, fraud, and passing worthless checks. Buck, 22 years of age, was implicated in a case with a young girl and it is believed that in an effort to supply her wants and treat her to luxuries that he was forced to raise money in a criminal manner. He has been married but was attracted by the girl who was a neighbor at Milton Plantation and after he had committed himself to forgery and fraud he fled to Detroit, Mich., to escape the criminal surroundings.

Theodore Gaudette and Joseph Nadeau who had previously pleaded guilty to charges of attempting to break jail and not guilty to charges of breaking and entering, retracted their pleas and both pleaded guilty. They were apprehended last July when they entered a summer camp at Woodstock.

Harley Hart, Lincoln Plantation, who had pleaded not guilty to breaking and entering, pleaded guilty. His sister, Florence, 15 years old, implicated in the case, is now confined at the Halliwell school for girls.

Charles Maata, West Sumner, was found guilty of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Maata had no counsel for defense and after the jury had been out 45 minutes a verdict of guilty was returned. Joseph Thurlow and his son, Clarence, were the only witnesses for the State. The son testified that last June 7, he saw the respondent with his machine upset in the garden near his house. He also discovered a jug of odor and called liquor on the breath of the respondent. The older Thurlow testified that he came upon the scene when the car was upset and that he saw Maata driving zig-zag with his breath smelling of liquor. The respondent sat in the dock throughout the testimony and merely grunted when the court asked him if he wished to be a witness any questions. He is a Finnish farmer living in West Sumner.

John Wiscont of Rumford retracted his plea to guilty of keeping liquor and selling at his place of business in the Wiscont Block on River Street. This was after Deputy Sheriff Reed and Holman testified to searching the place and discovering liquor in the basement. Judge Stevenson of the Rumford Municipal Court identified certain records in his court relative to the hearing following the raid. Clerk of Courts, Donald B. Partridge, was also called to prove records of the case in the Supreme Court. All of this was produced to connect evidence brought by two witnesses of a liquor party that alleged a sale sometime last March. Alcohol, hot water and sugar was the alleged concoction served in the Wiscont tenement. At the close of the state's case, the respondent retracted to guilty.

Mrs. Mary Wiscont, his wife, pleaded not guilty to three indictments, namely liquor nuisance, common seller and single sale. The state in its case against the respondent opened the charge of single sale, alleging ten glasses of intoxicating liquor were sold to a group including the witnesses in the previous case, based upon the evidence brought by a woman and man in the party. The defense was a denial of the charges and endeavored to show the motive for testifying against the respondent, which reflected upon the moral character of the female witness.

The testimony of Mrs. Wiscont, largely through an interpreter, was to the effect there was no liquor belonging to the Wisconts on the premises. So far as she knew, the party received from her, the respondent, only hot water. She denied the statements that money was passed for liquor, but a witness was paid for rent by the witness. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Mr. and Mrs. Wiscont were represented by Attorneys Beliveau and Parker.

Maude H. Ryerson of Norway and So. Paris retracted her plea to guilty of street walking and was sentenced to the Reformatory for Women at Shawmut. Dorothea C. Bickford of Fryeburg also retracted and pleaded guilty of theft. She was committed to the same reformatory.

Joydin and Melanson, respondents in the rumormongering case which was heard Tuesday, were found guilty by a jury who made the return Wednesday forenoon.

Three places are for sale by Will E. Decker, East Stoneham, Route 3. See ad in another column.

HARTFORD MAN SHOOTSELF ON HUNTING TRIP

Henry Hussey, North Hartford, and a friend left home late Tuesday for a hunting trip in Northern Oxford county. As they were going through Roxbury Notch, they saw some coons by the roadside. Mr. Hussey started to draw his revolver to shoot at the coons, when in some manner the gun exploded. The bullet entered his right leg near the groin passing downward and coming out near the knee making a large opening.

Mr. Hussey's son Wilbur Hussey, was following his father in another car and arrived on the scene of the accident within five minutes from the time it occurred. He corded the injured member and they then took Mr. Hussey to McCarthy's hospital at Rumford. He lost considerable blood but is resting as well as can be expected.

BATES—WEST PARIS

Reception for Dr. and Mrs. Tait. An informal reception was given to Dr. and Mrs. Tait last week at the Centennial Hall. The hall was prettily decorated with Autumn leaves and plants. The young physician and his bride have come here highly recommended from Edmonton, Manitoba, Western Canada, entire strangers to this country, on their honeymoon and to make their home and business among us. They were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perham and the Principal, Mr. Dwight Libby and Mrs. Libby and Rev. E. B. Forbes. There was a good representation of the north part of the town present about 200 people, to greet the new doctor and to show their appreciation and good will.

There was a short program, a welcome song by the Glee Club from the grade schools led by Miss Winslow, the local music teacher; a violin solo, with encore, by Sylvia McKen with Margaret Lane, accompanist; and a piano solo by Mary Patch. Miss Forbes made a short speech of welcome into which she wove a humorous vein, saying that if she wished him success it would be wishing the people ill and vice versa to which the doctor and Mrs. Tait graciously responded. After which ice cream and cake were served to all.

An hour of games for the young people closed a pleasant evening. A wedding gift of money was also given by the people. Much credit towards the success of the affair was due the school students who gave unstintingly of their time to Mrs. Anna B. Perkins who superintended it.

Mrs. Carrie Flavin entertained at a banquet, consisting of oyster stew and all the fine pastries connected with it, in honor of her Sunday School class of young ladies, assisted by Ella Z. Berry and her Sunday School class of young men, at her home, Tuesday evening at 6.30. Two long tables were set in the dining room and kitchen of their spacious house and a fine time was enjoyed. After supper an evening was spent in games and singing from the new S. S. song books which had just arrived for the Sunday School use.

The Federated Aid will hold their sale and Harvest supper in the Grand Hall, Thursday, Oct. 30. The entertainment will consist of readings by local talent and music by Mrs. Stella Burnham and others from South Paris. A ladies' quartet is expected.

Mrs. L. C. Bates is improving in health daily and Mrs. Anna B. Perkins, who has been there sixteen weeks continuously, is to return to the sanitarium and take up her business there. There will be two nurses at the sanitarium all winter so that all can be taken care of efficiently.

Ivan Hubert Tuell of Melrose, Mass., and his wife, Erma Lillian Gould of Portland, whom he married Oct. 11, are here visiting his cousin, Maynard and Reynolds Chase and their families.

WOOLTEX

You will find it in the collar of many of the new winter coats on display here. It is the best guarantee we can give you that the coats are as well made as they are smart and that they will keep their good looks as long as you wear them—all things you are undoubtedly thinking of as you buy your winter coat.

Among our present showing are many late winter models. You will note that the silhouette remains as straight of line as ever. The tendency is for a combination of great simplicity with great beauty of line. On many coats rich, luxuriant furs are the only trimming. The soft, supple fabrics with the texture and lustre of suede continue as the accepted materials for dress coats. For every day there is a large variety of the woolly type of materials—Downywool, Velvatone, Angoria-Block.
